conference setting its face against claims of them, while even France was hidden to abandon all aspirations for a military occupation of the Rhine frontier. Now, granted that every limitation placed upon national claims was warranted, it was not less unworkable that no limitation was sufficiently considerable to satisfy the German, Austrian, Hungarian or Turkish peoples or governments.

All Are Disappointed.

Mr. Wilson announced that if there were taken from Germany only the provinces inhabited by people who desired to be free, there would be no permanent German hostility. The fact of course, was that by taking the Rhine provinces, the German people would be taken from the German people, and a German resentment would be kindled. The German people would be taken from the German people, and a German resentment would be kindled.

West Sent Home to Hungary.

In so far as Germany was concerned, allied armies on the Rhine and allied forces in the East were ready to enforce the decisions of the Paris conference. The German people, however, were not ready to accept the decisions of the Paris conference. The German people, however, were not ready to accept the decisions of the Paris conference.

Here lies the real explanation.

The Paris conference, under Mr. Wilson's leadership, has been a failure. The Paris conference, under Mr. Wilson's leadership, has been a failure. The Paris conference, under Mr. Wilson's leadership, has been a failure.

Now it seems that if anyone has the time and patience to sit down with ethnological and a physical map of Europe, he will find that the whole of the new frontiers have been drawn with proper regard for both the elements and the people. The new frontiers have been drawn with proper regard for both the elements and the people.

It has achieved no settlement, because it has no method of enforcing its decisions. The Paris conference, under Mr. Wilson's leadership, has been a failure. The Paris conference, under Mr. Wilson's leadership, has been a failure.

Now this means only one thing.

It means that the Paris conference has failed. The Paris conference, under Mr. Wilson's leadership, has been a failure. The Paris conference, under Mr. Wilson's leadership, has been a failure.

16th Infantry, Once Here, Gets Croix De Guerre

Gen. Howze Is Given Designation As Officer Of Legion Of Honor.

With the American Forces in Germany, July 22.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Decorations bestowed recently upon the 16th Infantry, first division, by marshal Pétain included the second regimental award of the Croix de Guerre with palm which, in the French army, entitles the officers and men of the regiment to wear the fourragère. American officers say they believe it quite probable that authority for the unit to wear the shoulder cord will be forthcoming from Washington in the near future.

All infantry regiments of the first division have now received the Croix de Guerre with palm, the 16th and 20th infantry being decorated this week at ceremonies in Coblenz. The 16th infantry received the award some time ago. The 16th infantry was in the front lines during the battle of the Marne.

The 16th and 20th field artillery regiments of the first division also received from marshal Pétain collective citations amounting to the decoration of the colors of these regiments with the Croix de Guerre with palm.
